

Toward Primary

Issue 6

15th May 2020

Pupil's Newsletter

In This Issue:

Story of the Week

Recipe of the Week

Pet Corner

Joke of the Week

Art Pictures of the Week

News of the Week

Art Pictures of the Week

Rainbows

By Sam

Veg Social Distancing

By Evie

Please keep sending in your stories, recipes, jokes, artwork, news and pet photos to Laura.Lauffer@argyll-bute.gov.uk

Welcome to our pet corner.

We now have a pet corner in our newsletter.

Pippa sent in pictures that she took of her cute furbabies,

Email me your own photos of your pets and lets see some great photographic skills as well as cute pets.

Story of the Week

Diary entry from the Titanic By Evie

continued I saw mother and father waving cheerfully trying to get me to calm down unlike Scot who was nervously screaming like I don't know what. Mother and father were sitting in the last lifeboat trying to defend it. I ran to them, just then Scot slammed his way past me and I fell unconscious.

I woke up the next day on the shore of New York and was rushed into the hospital after being spotted by a tourist. I was very lucky to have survived as many had not.

The End

Recipe of the Week: Sean's Cajun Salmon Salad

Generously season fresh salmon and set aside.

Heat a frying pan well, and add a little olive oil.

Place salmon in frying pan skin side down and cook for 3 minutes or until crisp, or salmon is cooked at least 2/3 through.

Turn and cook for a further 2 mins. You want a nice crisp cajun top-side!

Slice some lettuce and arrange on a plate with some dressing. Add salmon and enjoy!

Joke of the Week

What do you get when you cross a computer with an elephant?
Lots of memory

By Grace

News of the Week By Lachlan

I used rope, tarps and a hammock to make a den which I spent the night in! There's a hammock under the camouflage!!

